Booking conditions

Data protection: IPA will use the information you provide on your booking form, and any additional information you may provide to us in the future, for the purposes of administering this and future events.

Booking conditions: A member's entitlement to discounted event attendance is non-transferable. A full refund or credit of event charges will be made only where cancellation is notified by email a minimum of 21 days before the date of the event. Where notification of cancellation is received within 21 days of an event, the full charge for event attendance remains payable. Where a delegate is unable to attend a booked event, they may nominate an alternative person from within their organisation to attend, up to 48 hours prior to the start of the event. No additional charge will be made where the substitute person was entitled to the same delegate rate as the original booked delegate, but where that is not the case, any additional charges become immediately due and payable for the difference between the applicable delegate rates, and will be invoiced accordingly. Payment of event charges should ordinarily be made at the time of booking but in any event is due within 14 days of the IPA issuing a VAT invoice, or prior to the day of the event, whichever is the sooner. All booking amendments, substitutions and cancellations should be sent to events@ipa.uk.com. The IPA reserves the right to refuse admission to a delegate or delegates where any event charges are outstanding as at the date of the event.
