IPA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Insolvency
Practitioners
Association

Wednesday
14 April 2010

VENUE
British Academy of Film and Television
Arts, 195 Piccadilly,
London W1J 5LN

'IPA At The BAFTAS'

A conference presented by IPA covering:

- New April 2010 Rules
- OFT Study on Corporate Insolvency
- Feedback from IPA's Regulation Team
- Football Finance
- Barclays Bank – Leading and Dealing with IPs

Last year's conference was extremely successful and a sell out and we are again expecting demand for places this year to be high. We have a limited number of places so book now to avoid disappointment!

The IPA 2010 Conference brings together insolvency practitioners from across the UK, to share the latest developments in the insolvency industry. The conference will provide you with a unique high-energy inter-active learning experience and give you an opportunity to debate some of the topics that are dominating insolvency news headlines.

For this year, the conference will be held in an award winning venue, situated in the heart of the capital, the iconic home of the British Academy of Film and Television Arts, 195 Piccadilly, London W1J 5LN.

The IPA Annual Conference is an established feature of the insolvency CPE calendar. It aims to provide our members and their staff with practical updates on a broad range of topical subjects at an affordable price.

Each year it attracts an increasing number of IPs from a wide variety of backgrounds, from throughout the UK. Our speakers are all expert in their fields and delegates receive comprehensive course documentation which may later be used for reference. The conference provides 5 hours CPE accreditation.

Places are limited at what promises be a fantastic event. Make sure you reserve your place and join us at the IPA 2010 Conference by filling in the booking form today.
